

Before you enroll in a Game Plan, the Game Plan section of the Dashboard will show you this:

Game Plans

You won't see anything here until you choose at least one path to follow!

Game plans provide a roadmap for solving common problems for BCBA's.

The Master ABA Dojo gives you access to everything you need as a BCBA, but we don't want to overwhelm you. Use the options below to select one place to start. Once you select the recommended Game Plan, you'll be enrolled in that path. You'll be able to access it from here once you're enrolled.

Come back here when you feel ready to tackle another Game Plan!

Choose the statement that best describes your professional situation.

This will determine what content you see. You will be able to come back later to choose another path.

- I struggle with conducting accurate behavioral assessments in the real world and choosing interventions that lead to meaningful change.
- I'm not sure how to conduct a thorough assessment and turn the results into a meaningful treatment plan that gets approved by insurance in the time allowed.
- My clients don't seem to be making the progress I want to see. I spend hours creating my plans – but I'm not sure if they're being carried out the way I expected.
- I've tried everything and can't get parents to use ABA at home.
- I have to provide supervision – but how can I fit that in with everything else I'm doing?
- I have a new understanding of the term burnout. I love my job, but it completely drains me.

When you click on one of the 6 statements, you'll see a button for the related Game Plan.

Personalized Results

Your recommended Game Plan is based on your questionnaire results. When you select a recommendation, it will open a new tab. You'll see a "check out" page, but don't worry - it's included in your Master ABA Dojo membership. Just click "Join the Game Plan" and you'll be brought to the game plan.

You'll be brought to the enrollment page. You must click the checkbox for the terms and conditions – these are the same you agreed to when joining the membership.

You'll be brought to the Game Plan page. Here you can complete a self-assessment to identify relevant strengths and weaknesses. You can then complete related courses. At the bottom of the Game Plan page, you'll also find related resources such as guides, templates and checklists:

Game Plan for Behavioral Assessments and Plans

I struggle with conducting accurate behavioral assessments in the real world and choosing interventions that lead to meaningful change.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Self-assessments give you a moment to reflect on where you are, and will help you gauge progress through Game Plan.

WRITING OPERATIONAL DEFINITIONS EASILY AND EFFECTIVELY

COURSE: Learn to craft the perfect operational definition. The member-only version of this course provides an opportunity to submit your definitions for feedback.

CONDUCTING AND DOCUMENTING A BEHAVIORAL ASSESSMENT

COURSE: Learn a step-by-step system to complete the behavioral assessment process efficiently.

When you navigate back to the dashboard, you'll have an option to add a new Game Plan (we recommend you go through your first Game Plan before adding more). When you click the button, you'll get a pop up with the same 6 questions. Choose a different response to add a different Game Plan.
